Denver, Colo., Sept. 17.—Philip B. Stewart, intimate friend of the president, who was nominated Saturday by the Republicans for governor, has declined the nomination because after his speech of acceptance, Chief Justice Gabbert of the supreme court was renominated. Gabbert is the justice whose decisions were instrumental in bringing about the reign of terror in Cripple Creek and other gold camps, where deportation was employed and the writ of habeas corpus suspended. Gabbert, the last time was elected as a Populist, but ten days ago he publicly declared himself a Democrat.
Nevertheless, he was put on the Republican ticket because the leaders said his courage in -upholding law deserved reward. Stewart, it is said, had been promised Gabbert would not be nominated.

Arnold-Dickson Brothers Deny They Intend to Skip, but Make Preparations for Quiet Departure.

Judge Whitaker Makes Sentence for Assault Ninety Days at Hard Labor-Case Is Appealed-"Getaway Money" Secured.

George J. Arnold of the notorious Arnold-Dickson "brothers," was sentenced by City Judge J. J. Whitaker yesterday to ninety days at hard labor in the city jail. Arnold was convicted Friday of assaulting Mrs. Mary M. Brandon, 74 years of age, as she grabbed an alleged "spirit" and found it to be a human being. He appealed the case, and gave a bond in the sum of $300.

But another development yesterday leads to the suspicion that the bond may be forfeited and the case never tried. George J. Arnold and James J. Dickson, comprising the pair of humbugs known as the Arnold-Dickson "Brothers," yesterday sold their house and furniture at 369 East Third South street, to Dr. S. N. A. Downing and his son for $9,500. Of this amount $500 was for the furniture, the original value of which is estimated to be ten times that sum. They cautioned everybody connected with the transaction to keep the matter from the news-

After paying off encumbrances on the property, the pair have about $3,500 for what ordinary crooks call "getaway money." They denied last evening that they intended to flee and declared their creditors would be paid in full. But these protestations were expected. The fact remains that they have been exposed by The Herald as humbugs, that Arnold has been sentenced to jail, that other trouble of a serious character is in sight for them, and that they have sold their property and are in shape to slip away for pastures new, where the crop of "suckers" may be better.

There is much more to be said and done in connection with Arnold and Dickson. Whether they remain in the city or seek to join the colony founded by the departed and mourned Beresford Hope, The Herald will continue this series of exposures and will in due time explain a few of the "tricks of the trade" which have mystified many and have
